

On Friday, February 5, Rep. Loretta Sanchez, the Orange County Transportation Authority, Teamsters Local 952, and Chapman University will co-host the Southern California Transit Forum. The event will provide constituents and transit stakeholders with an opportunity to share their views about the challenges and opportunities facing Southern California's transit systems.

Topics for discussion will include federal funding opportunities, the state transit funding crisis, and the future of California's high-speed rail system.

What: Southern California Transit Forum

When: Friday, February 5 from 8:00am-5:00pm

Where: Paul and Daranne Folino Theater, Chapman University (283 N. Cypress Street, Orange, CA)

Please RSVP to Catherine Curtis by calling (714) 621-0102.

Campus Map: <http://www.chapman.edu/map/campusMap.asp>